Colour Disclaimer

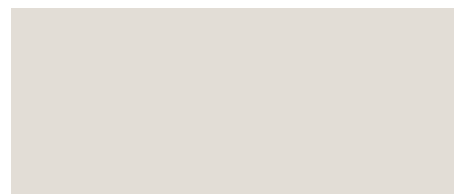

Please note that colours shown are intended to be indicative only. While every effort has been made to ensure the colours and finishes displayed are as close as possible to the actual products, variations can occur due to differences in lighting, application methods, surface texture, and sealing systems. Rockcote strongly recommends requesting a physical sample to assess the colour choice for your specific project. The example below illustrates how the same colour can vary across two different products and a painted sample. For personalised advice, please contact our team.
